HOW THE VOYAGE STARTED

Previously Advance Quality Life Consultants pvt. Ltd. was known as Quality Life Consultants, which was a partnership firm, before 2023 the members of the partnership firm were working with their skills and dedication for a proprietorship firm of Kolkata. In the course of time, they have seen dearth's of many major factors which are key that upholds an organization. They felt that there is hardly any room to share knowledge, there is vision but that is not clarified, actions which doesn't justify the mission. In such scenario, the members of AQLC had took their first step towards the journey to establish AQLC, with objectives to create a safe space where humanity is protected, association between employees and employers are restored, as well as a place where people are being cherished for their dedication, hard work, creativity and humble qualities.
